

DIGITAL PRESS

"The Scavengers of Videogaming" published bi-monthly

SCAVENGER HUNT WINNER Russ Perry Jr.

EDITOR'S BLURB by Joe Santulli

We have a winner! It took guts, determination, and no social life whatsoever (just kidding, Russ!) to be a serious contender in this, the first annual Digital Press Scavenger Hunt! Russ got his entry in just under the wire, as I was about to prepare this issue for second place entrant Al Backiel. Russ edged Al out by two items, missing only two of the nineteen items on the list!

It was a close race. Early entrants had ten or eleven items, and it looked for awhile that a tie-breaker would be needed. I figured that those who seriously wanted to win would give themselves the most time to come up with all of the items, and I was right. About two weeks before the deadline, AI Backiel submitted his 15 item entry and looked to be the winner until a certified package reached my doorstep on June 15th.

Russ missed only the Nintendo Cereal box and the Mario or Luigi doll, although he did give a creative (but rejected) effort by Xeroxing pictures of them from magazines. He even sent a Donkey Kong cereal box with his entry in place of the Nintendo brand. For those of you who missed issue 5 or don't remember the list, here were the items to find:

- 1. A game review in a magazine or fanzine where the reviewer gave the lowest possible score in any given category.
- 2. A cartridge label with a duck pictured on it.
- 3. A videogame magazine cover dated January 1985.
- 4. An advertisement for a game or peripheral that was never released.
- 5. A photograph of a game designer from a company other than Activision.
- A recording of Pac-Man Fever on cassette.

- 7. A picture of a game screen with a castle on it.
- 8. A page from an instruction manual with at least two misspellings.
- 9. A page from a magazine with the wrong name attached to the picture of a videogame.
- 10. An arcade token.
- 11. A clipping from a television listing displaying the airing of either Pac-Man, Q*Bert, Donkey Kong, or Pole Position cartoons.
- 12. A classified ad where the owner is selling an Atari 2600 system.
- 13. The signature of game designer Carol Shaw.
- 14. Any game card from the 'Dragon's Lair" trading card set.
- 15. Any of the Activision patches awarded for high scores in their games.
- 16. A Nintendo cereal box.
- 17. An Atari Age product, not including the magazine itself.
- 18. A Golden Axe poster.
- 19. A Mario or Luigi doll of any size.

The rewards for winning the contest were An Intellivision II system with 12 games and a lifetime subscription to Digital Press. Of course, the best reward is the envy and admiration of gamers everywhere. I, for one, was very impressed. I'll have to make next year's "hunt" even tougher.

On the following pages I've reprinted Russ' entry with a brief commentary on each. I think you'll find them as entertaining as I did. Once again, congratulations Russ! Your prizes are on their way!

The Addams Family

By The Spam Weasel

If you survived "the great" Addams Family media blitz of 1991, bad news – we ain't out of the woods yet. This month, The Addams Family comes lurching your way on your NES.

In this mediocre, one-player jump and dodge cart, you're Gomez, pop of the Addams clan. Tully Alford, the family attorney, is

Addams' bucks and he's taken Morti-Origsley, Wednesday, and Lurch scoop family fortune You need $1,000,000 to eventually save Morticia. has to save them?

is where the bulk kes place,

your head...

Occasionally you must solve a puzzcontinue. For instance, after you rescue Wednesday from the freezer, you'll have to thaw her out if you want her attic key. (Hint: The Furnace is nice and warm.)

The Addamses are a special family. Unfortunately, there's nothing special about this cart. It's a run-of-the-mill jump and dodge game with average graphics and a ho-hum challenge level. The music is the absolute worst PROTIP: There's $100,000 in a secret room on the landing. Get under the first mirror (just past the law chairs), jump up, and press Up when you're in the air.

— an NES rendition of the Addams Family theme song that plays over and over and over and over.

Every once in a while you're reminded that the classics are sometimes the best Gimme a copy of Fester's Quest (Sunsoft 1989)! Ooky belee!!

he Addams Family by Ocean, available now, $49.95 successed retail price 2 mags

Here's the picture of a game screen with a castle on it. You know, when I designed the contest, this is the very picture I had in my mind - from the Adventure instruction manual for the Atari 2600.

Russ submitted the Gamepro magazine review for The Addams Family by Nintendo as the "lowest possible score" entry. I'm sure all of the categories came close to being the lowest, but the "sound" rating hit rock bottom.

Saturday

7:30 AM to 9:35 AM

(1) (12) (13) SHIRT TALES

3 9 12 LITTLE RASCALS/RICHIE

RICH—Cartoon

28 THAT TEEN SHOW

CM BIG STORY—Don Miller

ESN VIC'S VACANT LOT—Children

(MAX) MOVIE—Cartoon

'Galaxy Express." (90 min.) USA CO-ED-Teen-agers

Included: rock-star photograher Bob Bruen: self-defense techniques; and the latest in T-shirts.

WORLD TOMORROW WITH HER-BERT W. ARMSTRONG-Religion

7:35 (TBS) MOVIE—Drama (BT)
"Strait-Jacket." (1964) Joan Crawford colorfully portrays a released ax-murderer. When she visits her daughter (Diane Baker) in the country, curious events occur-like ax murders. Bill:

events occur—like ax murders. Bill Leif Erickson. (2 hrs.)

8 AM (2) (3) (5) (7) (8) MEATBALLS & SPAGHETTI—Cartoon
(1) (1) (12) (13) SMURFS—Cartoon
(5) (9) (12) MONCHHICHIS—Cartoon Debut: The Monchhichis are lovable monkeylike creatures that live above the clouds in very tall trees, and whose happy lives are threatened only by the evil Grumplins that want to capture and enslave them.

ALBERT AND FRIENDS—Children
MISTER ROGERS' NEIGHBOR-

I guess Russ is a packrat. He had a TV Guide listing from September 10, 1983 showing the Pac-Man cartoon aired at 8:30 AM. So how did Pac-Man get those arms and legs, Russ?

(USA) YOU!--Magazine WGN) REX HUMBARD—Religion 8:10 (TH) HEALTHWEEK—Levine/Rutz 8:30 (2) (3) (6) (7) (8) BUGS BUNNY/ROAD RUNNER—Cartoon (5) (9) (12) PAC-MAN—Cartoon
(10) ELECTRIC COMPANY—Children 26 LORNE GREENE'S NEW WILDERNESS (500) GREAT SPACE COASTER CNN MONEYWEEK-Lou Dobbs USA ALIVE & WELL!

A-20 TV GUIDE

SEPTEMBER 10, 1983 PAY-MOVIE DETAILS BEGIN ON A-10

SPECIAL PROGRAMMING NOTE Next Saturday, CBS and NBC begin their new schedule of children's pro-

A card from the Dragon's Lair trading set. There were cards and stickers in this set. The cards were games in themselves in that you had to "rub off" the correct path to the exit. One of the finest non-sports card sets ever produced.

"The Boy from Oklahoma." Slight yarn about a drifter (Will Rogers Jr.) who aids a gangridden town, armed only with lariat and prayer. Katie: Nancy Olson. Wally: Wallace Ford. (90 min.)

CHE NEWS HBO INSIDE THE NFL

"They All Laughed." (1 hr., 55 min.)

SHO MOVIE—Musical

The Boy Friend " /1 hr 50 min )

USA) MI The L 1951) neer with a ance. (

CHO M 2 3 —Carti 4 -Cart 3)(9 Debut: childre are tii They I face hi

OD HC 20 35 (CNN) S (ESN) II 9:35 (TBS) N

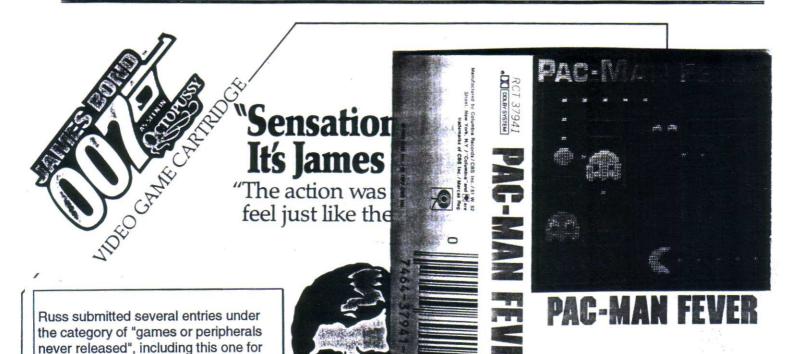

'Expe Edwar

DRAGONS LAIR ODon Bluth 1983 26

· ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM

10:1 10:3

This was probably the easiest one on the list to find. I think everybody has this cartridge! And there's the duck on the label.

The thrills are non-stop."

—The Rolling Pebble

well.

Parker Brothers' James Bond

Octopussy. Russ notes that the game was never released but was partially completed and aired on television as

"The longer the game went on, the more furious the chase became..."
"When Bond leaped from train to train, my heart skipped a beat."
—Boston Orb

Ah, the Pac-Man Fever cassette. Hey, it has a good beat and I can dance to it. Is any gamer's collection of memorabilia complete without it? Chock full of classic hits from other games as well - Frogger, Defender, and Mouse Trap among the more forgettable of these.

priceless gem."

-Vincent Can'the

The arcade token, which, if it didn't photocopy well, is from Aladdin's Castle, "The Ultimate Party Place". Also winner of the "most pretentious arcade token" award by Digital Press.

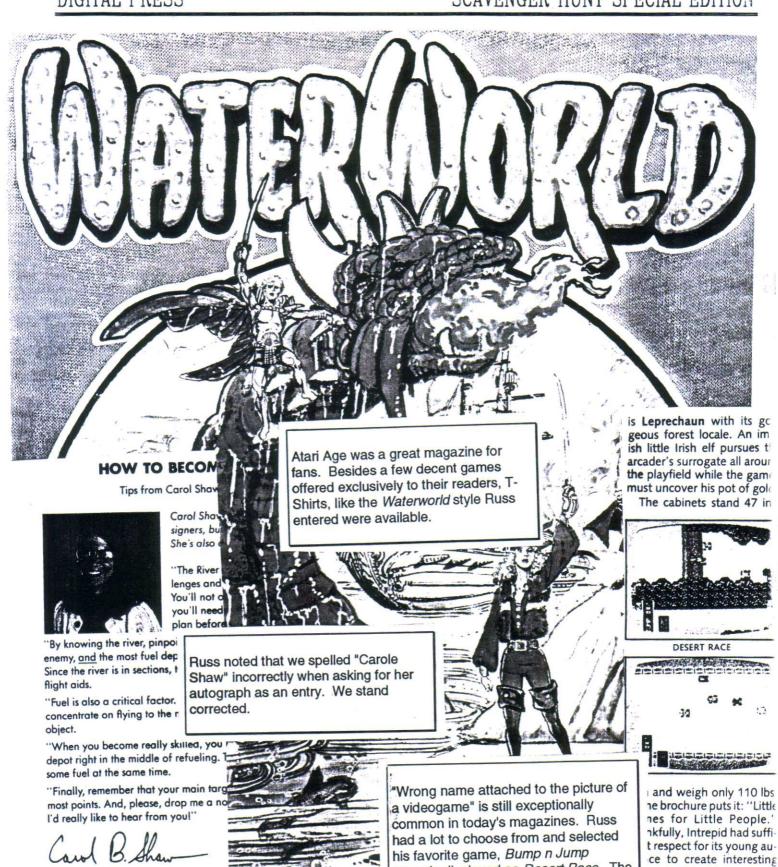

For your Atari 2600 Video Computer System™ and the Sears Video Arcade.™ Coming soon for Intellivision.®

SPARKER BROTHERS

© Eon Productions/Glidrose Publications Limited 1983. Atari* and Atari Video Computer System'" are trademarks of Atari, Inc. Sears Video Arcade'" is a trademark of Sears Roebuck & Co. Intellivision* is a registered trademark of Mattel, Inc. Parker Brothers is not affiliated with Mattel, Inc. © 1983 Parker Brothers, Beverly, MA 01915

nkfully, Intrepid had suffit respect for its young auce to create interesting es to fit inside.

wrongly displayed as Desert Race. The ignorant fools!

1000

Electronic Games 9:

Game: SPACE MONSTER

-Description-

1- Game reset: The flyers will be shown on the top of your TV-screen. The two figures which are shown on the button side on your TV-screen contents as follows:

Left figure : For game selection

Right figure : The figure 6 contents - the player will get 6. firebases

Game - 0 - for bird Game - 1 - for turtle Game - 2 - for spider

Push the controller to forward position and the firebase will appear on your TV-screen.

- 2- The flyers will bombing the firebase, you have to move the controller to avoid that the firebase will be hitten. Push on the action bottom "FIRE" to enable you to destroy the flyers.
- 3- If all the flyers had been destroyed the next round is appearing on your screen automaticly.
- 4- The coring by each hit:

	The	stead	v flvers	at upper	side on	TV-screen	(small)		3	points
			flyer				(big)		10	points
	2nd	round	flyer				16		20	points
			flyer						40	points
			flyer						50	points
			flyer						- 60	points	_
_			ffyer				-		70	points
			flyer						80	points
	8th	round	flyer				. *		90	points
			flyer					4Ne	99	points

Upon the 9th round the flyers which you will destroy gives a score of 99 points.

- 5- The flyers speed will change automaticly as soon as you reach the next round.
- 6- Every time when your scors exceeds 1000points the player will receive automaticly 1 firebase in addition up to maximum of 9 firebases.
- 7- If the player select on the cartridge to difficulty -A- the firebase will enlarge, which automaticly means the that the firebase will be more difficult to defent against the attacks. Concluding the player has to be very professional.
- 8- The flyers have verious ways of attacking. They will disappear from one side of the TY-screen and will surprise you from attacking from the other side.

9- Panel Button:

TV-Type

ON : Colour OFF: B/W

Difficulty

A : Hard B : Easy

K-TEL INTERNATIONAL

November, 1982

Russ had a hard time coming up with a Golden Axe poster, but had one that was "close enough". This Sega poster certainly featured Ax Battler from that game.

One of my favorite entries, the "two misspelling or more" instruction manual. Space Monster is a European game with a somewhat English manual. Actually, this could have made a "seven misspelling or more" bid. See for yourself.

but two of the games of yesteryear covered in this very attractive, well-written issue which Adkins bills as his "Special Summer Edition." The editor contributes a "20 years ago" retrospective on Atari, and there's a column on cartridge collecting.

Classic Systems isn't a pure nostalgia trip, though. Each gives solid information, like the detailed explanation of the difficulty levels included in the Track 'n' Fleld piece.

Despite a few unnecessary "pseudo-pro" trappings, Classic Systems is an appealing publication. It's especially recommended for those who own and still admire those old gaming machines.

Digital Press #6 & #7

Edited by Joe Santulli 29 Cupsaw Ave. Ringwood, NJ 07456-2818 Bimonthly, $1.25 per issue 24 and 8 pages, respectively

Two issues of this fine video game fanzine are at hand. The larger one celebrates completion of a year of publication, while #7 reports the results of the DP scavenger hunt, in which Santulli challenged readers to find such items as a game magazine cover dated January 1985 and a classified ad trying to sell an Atari 2600. Reader Russ Perry won.

The usual content of Digital Press balances well-researched articles about old systems with news and reviews of 16-bit games. Santulli's writing style is relaxed, personable, and lucid, but the fanzine itself could use a dose of informality. The subscription ad on the inside back cover adds nothing to the zine and burns up a page that could have been used for something better.

My favorite piece in #6 is Santulli's study of oddball video games which includes his choices for the ten strangest titles of all time. All pieces are well-illustrated by cartoon artwork and black and white photos.

Santulli's abilities as a writer and editor seem to grow with each new issue of Digital Press. Fanzine connoisseurs don't want to miss future issues, because I've got a strong feeling that the best is yet to come from Mr. Santulli.

Zapp! #4

Edited by Scott Weller 134 Ten Rod Rd. Exter, RI 02822. Quarterly, $4.75/four issues 16 pages

Reviews of current computer and video games are the main course in this tasty fanzine. A solid editorial, a letter column, strategy section, two Craig Engler articles on virtual reality games, and a news column round out a very good issue.

Weller displays a little artistic talent with a decent cover cartoon and visually pleasing layout and graphics. Some might find the body text type a little overpowering, but fanzine editors should feel free to display their individual preference in this manner.

Weller and the other reviewers describe games well, but the analysis isn't quite as good. They tend to rate most games either very high or very low, whereas the majority of titles fall into the middle. That notwithstanding, Zapp! is definitely a fanzine on the rise, well worth a try.

Super NES Gamer #4

Edited by Eric Longdin 19 Vermont St. Methuen, MA 01844

Bimonthly, $1 per issue, 19 pages
Fans of Nintendo's 16-bit system will appreciate the reviews, previews and hints in this highly enthusiastic video game fanzine. Zelda 3 is the lead review, but there is also material on Addams Family, Super Tennis, and other recent carts. A rundown of the Super Scope 6 should help gamers decide whether to buy one for their own collections.

Super NES Gamer #4 is quite legible and neat, but Longdin will want to upgrade the zine's appearance in the future. Printing on both sides of the page, tighter proofreading, and slicker headlines would all improve the presentation.

Attention fanzine editors:

If you want your fanzine reviewed in Electronic Games, send your zine to: Fandom Central Arnie Katz
330 S. Decatur, Suite 152
Las Vegas, NV 89107

Join the Jury

Review a game and win games in EG's monthly contest!

Each month, Electronic Games' critics review dozens of new releases. They do a great job, but a lot of our readers are knowledgeable and perceptive about the games, too. So for the first time in any gaming magazine, we're starting a monthly contest that will let you strut your stuff. We'll pick two games each month, one computer and one video, and challenge gamers to review them. Then, in "The Jury", EG will print the best ones. If we print your review, you will win a video or computer game of your choice! (Any system except Neo Geo.)

The rules are simple:

- 1. All reviews must be of the selected games.
- 2. Entrants can submit only one review of each game.
- 3. All submission become the property of EG.
- 4. Reviews should be 200 words or less, typed double-spaced.
- 5. The month's two best reviews (one in each division), as determined by EG editors, earn the writers a video or computer game of their choice. (Sorry, no Neo Geo carts.)
- 6. The contest is open to anyone who has not sold professionally to EG within the previous 12 months (exclusive of this contest).

Games for Contest #2: Super Action Football (video game/Super NES) Kyrandia (computer game) Deadline for this month's contest:

November 1, 1992

Send entries to: The Jury 330 S. Decatur, Suite 152 Las Vegas, NV 89107